

SERIOUS BLOW TO GERMANS IN POLAND

REPORTED TO HAVE LOST TWO BIG ARMY CORPS

Besides Corps Captured by Russians Another is Said
To Have Surrendered

GREATEST VICTORY OF PRESENT WAR

Czar's Armies in Galicia Continue Successful—They Have Doubled Their Offensive—Desperate Fighting in Poland Continues—German Plan to Repulse Russian Right Wing Fails and They are Caught in a Trap—Defeat of the Kaiser's Army Was Complete and Remnant is Endeavoring to Cut its Way Through the Russian Lines to Reach Lodz, Southwest of Warsaw.

(By International News Service)
Petrograd, Nov. 27.—The capture of an entire German army corps numbering 55,000 men by the Russians in Poland is announced officially by the Army Messenger. The paper states that another whole corps has surrendered.

"The Russians have redoubled offensive," said the Messenger. "It is expected that the formal announcement of the complete and overwhelming victory in Poland will soon be made by Grand Duke Nicholas.

"Our success continue in Galicia and the Russian troops have penetrated Hungary and taken several thousand prisoners."

Desperate fighting continues near Lodz, Russian Poland, as the beaten German forces are making strenuous attempts to facilitate their retreat to the region of Strykow, (several miles north of Lodz.)

The retreat is being made under conditions very unfavorable to the Germans. The Russian general staff announced yesterday, adding that all the advantage remains with the Russians in the battle in that territory.

Semi-official advices received from Poland show that the German defeat at Lodz, culminating in the capture of a German army corps, was the result of a Russian maneuver by which the Germans were led into an inextricable trap.

German Plan Failed
The Russian left wing resting on the River Warta and the Russian right wing on the Vistula, both lying along the Warsaw-Kalis Railroad, moved forward in unison in the last two days.

Simultaneously the Russian center advanced and the Germans followed, apparently relying upon a German column from Wielun to repulse the Russian left wing and to form a juncture with the main German forces.

The German plan failed as a result of the battle on November 25, when the German force from Wielun was repulsed. Thereafter the Russian wings advanced and closed the gap through which the German center had passed.

In the meantime, Russian reserves had come up and they surrounded the Germans, thousands of whom surrendered. Others fought their way north in an effort to join the German left in the vicinity of Lodz, (a town forty-four miles southwest of Warsaw.)

Przemysl Forts Captured Rome, Nov. 27.—Official advices to Phillipsburg yesterday afternoon. The Clearfield line-up was: Forward, Paterson and Aggar; guard, Aggar and Prosser; center, Letzinger. Clearfield lost 25 to 32. Another local team also played at Osceola and lost.

Russians Route Turks At Erzerum

(By International News Service) Tiflis, Transcaucasia, Nov. 27.—It is officially stated here that the Turks east of Erzerum have been completely routed by the Russians and fled to that stronghold. The Russians have taken 9000 prisoners and sixteen guns.

Fighting has been renewed south of Alashgerd, but Kurd hersemen and Turkish reinforcements have been driven back.

RUSSIAN VICTORY OVER THE GERMANS

Report of Disaster to Kaiser's
Army in Poland Confirmed

WHOLE ARMY CORPS CAPTURED

Petrograd States That the Germans Received a Crushing Blow Which Is Likely to Prove Decisive in the Campaign—Czar's Troops Also Win
Along Cracow Front and Invade Hungary.

Petrograd, Nov. 27.—The great Russian victory over the German forces invading Poland was officially confirmed last night. On the entire front of the Vistula and Warta rivers the Germans have begun a retreat. At some points, reports from the front say, the backward movement resembles a rout, artillery, ammunition and commissary stores being left on the field.

The most crushing blow was inflicted on the enemy in the region of Lodz. Fighting there still continues, but the Germans are hard pressed on every side by the Russians, and now are attempting to cut their way to the north.

Entire Army Corps Prisoners
Reports concerning the magnitude of the German defeat at Lodz, which in some instances place the German losses as high as an entire corps, appear in a measure to be confirmed by telegraphic dispatches from War-
saw.

Dealing with the fighting north of Lodz, the Army Messenger, the organ of the general staff, says:

"The Germans are making attack after attack in an attempt to break the Russian forces, but without success. The Austro-German army is stalling all on the battle." The newspaper adds that on the Galician front the Russian offensive is becoming more energetic and is reducing the enemy to a state of impotence. It also says that among the trophies taken by the Russians at Czenstoch-owa was Emperor William's carriage, which contained one of the emperor's coats.

Invasion of Hungary
The invasion of Hungary is also being pushed, the Russian forces having penetrated more than fifty miles to the south of the Carpathian mountains. Fighting is reported in the Hungarian counties of Ung and Zemplen. The following official communication from the Russian general staff was given out here last night:

TURKEY GIVES AN EXPLANATION

Shots Were Fired To Warn
Tennessee's Launch of Mines

MORGENTHAU SENDS MESSAGE

Minister of War at Constantinople Makes Statement of the Incident, and Secretary of State Bryan Gives it to the Newspapers—Boat Was Approaching Mine Field.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The launch from the American cruiser Tennessee which attempted to enter the closed harbor of Smyrna was signalled that it was approaching a mine field before shots were fired as a warning to the little craft, according to the explanation of the Turkish minister of war to American Ambassador Mor-genthau. This was announced by Secretary Bryan last night.

Mr. Bryan said he had received from Mr. Morgenthau a note addressed to the latter by the Turkish minister of war recording a previous conversation with reference to the Tennessee incident.

"The note," said Mr. Bryan, "contains the statement from government officials that the shots were fired after a signal had been given to prevent the launch from approaching mines, and that they were not fired in the direction of the launch."

Mr. Bryan said he could not tell from the message whether the Turkish minister of war made the formal explanation in response to the representation which Mr. Morgenthau was instructed to make, but he believed further dispatches would clarify this point.

AN ELK KILLED

It is reported that one of the big elk sent to this county several years ago was killed not far from the Crystal Springs hunting camp, presumably before the deer season opened.

DUNAWAY ENTERTAINMENT WAS A DECIDED SUCCESS

The Hetty Jane Dunaway recital, held in the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Women's club, was a financial success as well as a high class entertainment.
The club cleared over $50 after the expenses of the evening had been paid. This money will be used for home charities. The club already has in view several needy families, whose condition has been learned through the personal knowledge of the women of the club, the teachers in the borough schools and the Salvation Army.

The stage in the Y. M. C. A. was transformed by a committee from the club into a Japanese garden. Lattice work, climbing wisteria vines, cherry blossoms and banks of crysanthemums made an ideal setting for the part Miss Dunaway played.

"The Lady of the Decoration" was something different from the usual recital and Miss Dunaway won her audience at once by the clever way in which she played the story, changing from one part of it to another with deftness and skill and yet playing the part so naturally that she seemed to be really living in that faraway land.

The accompanist, Miss Vann, was exceptionally good and the people greatly enjoyed her part of the program.

War Loan Overseas
London, Nov. 27.—In a speech in the house of commons this afternoon Premier Asquith declared that England had rallied from the financial depression caused by the war. Conditions are now the very best as evidence of this he pointed to the loss of a billion dollars which had been fifty million oversubscribed and declared applicants for the loan numbered more than one hundred thousand, but could give no figures of the amount over subscribed. The financial deadlock at the beginning was caused by lack credit, but all the world owed us money, the United States alone five billion dollars.

Washington Awaits News Of Villa's Movements

(By International News Service)
Washington, Nov. 27.—Government officials today waited to hear from Mexico City regarding Villa, who is understood to be near the capital.
They believe this event will indicate the trend of future developments in the republic, as it will result in the prompt disclosure of the true relations between the chief of the north and Zapata. No anxiety is felt here over the situation, the officials having confidence in the latest report from Consul Carothers that Villa had renewed his pledge to keep order. There will be no looting or interference with the degree team of Dallas.

British Dreadnought Destroyed on Thames

The admiralty announced yesterday that the British dreadnought Bulwark had been destroyed by an explosion in the Thames off Sheerness, at the mouth of the estuary of the Medway, thirty-five miles from London. Only twelve men out of the 800 aboard were saved.

The explosion which destroyed the Bulwark occurred at 7:53 A. M. A vice admiral and a real admiral, who were on board, reported that they were convinced that the disaster was caused by a magazine explosion.
There was no upheaval of the water.

When the smoke had cleared away the ship had entirely disappeared.
Other reports say the destruction was caused by a torpedo from a German submarine.

The force of the explosion aboard the boat was so great that houses in Sheerness and even in South End, seven miles away and on the other side of the Medway, were violently shaken. The people fled into the streets in alarm. When the great ship blew up dense clouds of smoke and flame shot into the air. The vessel disappeared beneath the waves in three minutes.

The season for killing deer legally ended Wednesday night. Hundreds of these fleet-footed animals were slain by local and foreign hunters in the fifteen days during which it was permitted for them to hunt them. Quite a number of does were shot by careless hunters and a few deer that were wounded escaped into the brush to die where the hunters could not find them. At least one of the elk placed in the woods here a few years ago was killed, but whether by deer hunters or pheasant hunters is not known.

Sportsmen are in favor of changing the open season for deer until a later time in the year, when there is snow on the ground, so that wounded deer may be tracked and found and not be allowed to die where they cannot be found. When there is no snow on the ground a wounded deer has no trouble to hide itself in the brush and the hunter has no way of tracking it except by the blood drops, which are at best not easily discovered among the leaves and dead grass. If the season for killing deer were from the first of December to the fifteenth of the same month it would suit most hunters.

England's war minister may plead and England's poet laureate supplicate with the Briton to go to war, but the Briton is a cool, deliberate individual and must have his time in which to think the matter over. At this time there are a good many Englishmen who do not realize that German success in the war would mean the destruction of Great Britain, and the response to the appeals of the recruiting officers is anything but satisfactory to the heads of the war department.

Recently an appeal to an audience of twenty thousand Englishmen watching a football game resulted in the acquiescence of one solitary fan to don the king's uniform and become a recruit. Football may or may not be to blame for the indifference of this large crowd of Britons, but the incident proves that Englishmen, if they care anything about the results of the war, are willing to permit the French and Russians to do the fighting and undergo the hardships of the conflict. Possibly after the football season has ended the sporting Englishmen will turn their thoughts to the more serious matter of war and enlist in creditable numbers.

MUNICIPAL CHRISTMAS TREE

Clearfield will be in line with other and much larger towns this year by providing a municipal Christmas tree for the deserving poor children of the town. This is one of the projects of the Women's club, which has almost completed the plans for the innovation. The club is generously aided in this proposition by citizens, and the prospects are that such a Christmas tree as has never been seen in Clearfield will bring joy to many youngsters on Christmas morning.

Every citizen should desire to have part in this project. Those who feel disposed to help along the movement should send word to the Women's club. There are many little children in Clearfield whose enjoyment of Christmas has heretofore consisted in watching the smiling faces and gazing longingly upon other little people's presents, and the club this year decided that Clearfield should be the agent of Santa Claus in the distribution of gifts and that all poor children should participate in the distribution. The object is such a worthy one that all citizens should join in making it a complete success.

PRIZE CATTLE SAVED FROM APHTHOUS DISEASE

Blue ribbon winners in the $30,000 herd of prize cattle at the Pennsylvania State college were probably saved from infection by the foot and mouth disease by the failure to send them to the national dairy show, held in Chicago, last month. No cattle from Penn State were exhibited at that show, although it was planned to send the best specimens of live stock to the international show in Chicago next month. The postponement of that event will, it is believed, avoid the possibility of infection in the State college herd.

Every effort is being made to keep the local herd free from the disease, and the college barns are closed to all visitors who might carry the infection on their shoes or clothing. Dr. H. H. Havner, of the department of animal husbandry, said pigeons are one of the principal distributing agents of the foot and mouth disease.

He recommended they be confined to lots or killed on farms where there are infected cattle.

DOCKED FOR THE WINTER

Across the Luzerne where the harbor basin heads they've docked a dozen packets that are old familiar friends; The wind of autumn whistles round their smokeless stacks, and we are dreaming of the blue bay and the capes beside the sea. Dreaming dreams of wonder On those decks that seek the sun Where the rivers of the Chesapeake In dreams of beauty run.

It is quiet in the hollow where the fleet of Canton lies, And the penguins drift at anchor dreaming of the summer skies; The skipjacks and the schooners and the bugeyes ride at rest, And the winds of autumn rumple all the blue bay's lovely breast. Quiet in the hollow, Where the boats are docked to-night, And the bay-line steamers whistle As they bid good-by to light.

Nesting in the home port as they wait the call of spring, Oh, winds across the waters of the blue bay, won't you sing' And in that magic singing won't my soul go sailing down To river ports of beauty and the little oyster town. Sailing down to summer On that bay that breathes o'er me All the magic of the morning Of the spring upon the sea. —Baltimore Sun

QUAINT HISTORY RECALLED BY THE PRESENT WAR

Many a quaint bit of history is embodied in the words used in war. For instance, the terms "lance sergeant" and "lance-corporal" arose from the fact that in the old days the holders of those ranks carried a lance instead of a halberd, round the head of which was twisted a slow match. Just before a battle took place they went round the ranks with these torchlike lances and gave fire to the matchlock men.

"Colonel" comes from the Italian "colonna," a column. The campaign "colonne," having been the first company of an infantry regiment, the little column which the "colonel" led. The little "lieutenant" comes from a word signifying "holding the place," e. g. a lieutenant colonel is a sort of understudy for a colonel; a lieutenant looks after a company in the absence of the captain, and so on.

The word "dragon" was first used in a regiment of mounted infantry so called from the "dragon" or short muskets with which they were armed. The well-known cavalry call of "boot and saddle" is really a corruption of the old French "signif" "Bout Balle" or "Put on your saddle."

Admiral comes from the Arabic "Emir" or "Chief." The word "admiral" is a corruption of the Arabic "amir al-bihar" or "commander of the sea."

CLEARFIELD R. F. D. NO. 2

Good morning! How is your digestion?

Weather was ideal, turkey was prime, cranberry sauce excellent, pumpkin pie fine and the football game was well, just tolerable; the sermon, oh yes! Well it was not quite as long as we are used to, but we managed to get a short nap.

We saw Assemblyman-elect, J. E. Phillips, accompanied by some stranger visiting, the sick in Paradise yesterday, also at the hospital.

An apology. A certain person alleges that we made a hog have one eye in a former epistle. We didn't know we ever made any hog have any eyes, but as our education in hogology has been somewhat neglected (and consequently is deficient), rather than expose our ignorance in an abstract discussion of this great metaphysical question we apologize, ham and 4 or 5 feet of said hog, we will consider the incident closed.

Jas. Meador butchered on Wednesday and his neighbor, A. H. Gilles on Thanksgiving day.

Arch Ogden and his sister, Miss Della, motored to Clearfield yesterday and attended the union Thanksgiving service.

The Mt. Zion Sunday school will be held on next Sunday at 2 P. M. and if said complainant will send us a meeting conducted by the Brotherhood of Trinity church, Clearfield. All come to both services.

"THE MAN WHO VANISHED" AT THE GLOBE TONIGHT

"The Man Who Vanished," special in 2 reels. A scheming uncle and aunt attempt to secure, by resorting to foul play, the estate which is inherited by their nephew, Robert Schuyler. Thinking that they have succeeded in this, they take possession of the house only to learn later that their plan has failed and their victim is recovering. Hobart's sweetheart who nursed him back to health accidentally gets hold of the evidence which will convict the guilty ones. They imprison the girl in a fire proof vault and a rescue in the nick of time saves her life. Confronted by the evidence of their dastardly crime, the uncle and aunt are led away to punishment and disgrace at the Globe today.

"The Gypsy's Tallman" is a feature. To retaliate upon those who wrong us does not always satisfy, though its said, vengeance is sweet, but what must be the emotion of one who fancies that he has crushed his victim only to find that after all he has been thwarted. At the Globe today.

"Prosecution." Marcia's lover is the attorney against her brother. He offers to withdraw, but she urges him to do his duty. At the Globe today.

"The Revelry," who pays the fiddler. A happy mistake in identification.

Society

Rev. and Mrs. Peters entertained the choir of the Eleventh street church at the parsonage at dinner yesterday.

The dance given by the Felix club at the Dimeling last evening was one of the most delightful social affairs of the season. There were 125 guests present, fifteen couples being from out of town. The music was furnished by the Wallace and Hoover orchestra.

Dinner was served at 6 o'clock P. M. and dancing continued all evening, a buffet lunch being served during intermission.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McGulley held a holiday dinner at 6 o'clock at their home on Front street for the pleasure of their two sons, John and Arthur and friends, Jack Fuldner, Prof. Fahling, Lewis Gordon, Lorr Patchin, Clarence Berner, J. Albert Bushman. After the dinner, which they enjoyed immensely, they amused each other by discussing the football game and playing five hundred.

Santa Claus Opens Headquarters in Our Basement This Saturday

This store has always been noted for its Toyland. But it is bigger, finer and better this year than it has ever been. My! what a treat awaits the youngsters as they come to see the fruits of this year's buying. Whatever toys are made, you'll find them represented in this stock. A great many of the dolls and toys that he distributes are made in Germany. Every year he sends us large quantities of these Toys and Dolls. Before the war broke out, August 1st, he had already started upon their way many of his Christmas purchases, and we have received via Rotterdam several shipments from him; the last one arriving here on Tuesday of this week.

In addition to this big assortment of foreign Toys he has arranged for supplies from our own manufacturers here in the United States, so that altogether we have here for our opening of Toyland on Saturday, the largest and best assortment of toys ever offered the children of this vicinity. To go into details concerning what is here this year to amuse and instruct the little folks would be an almost endless task. All along the line you'll see the development of practical ideas—sensible gifts that will keep the youngsters busy for months, and their time will not be wasted.

We expect to sell a good many Toys right away, for the world is full of folks nowadays who believe in early selection. It means better assortments to start with, it means a far wider variety; and it means you'll skip the rush and crush of the final Christmas days. Bring the little folks this Saturday, and the old folks too, for Toyland is of interest to both old and young.

Besides Corps Captured by

Czar's Armies in Galicia Continue Successful—They Have Doubled Their
pulse Russian Right Wing Fails and They are Caught in a Trap—Defeat of the Kaiser's Army Was Complete and Remnant is Endeavoring to Cut
saw.

(By International News Service)
Petrograd, Nov. 27.—The capture
of an entire German army corps numbering 55,000 men by the Russians
in Poland is announced officially by the Army Messenger. The paper states
that another whole corps has surren-
dered.

"The Russians have redoubled offensive," said the Messenger. "It is expected that the formal announcement of the complete and overwhelming victory in Poland will soon be
made by Grand Duke Nicholas.

"Our success continue in Galicia
and the Russian troops have penetrated Hungary and taken several
thousand prisoners."

Desperate fighting continues near Lodz, Russian Poland, as the beaten
attempts to facilitate their retreat to
the region of Strykow, (several
miles north of Lodz.)

The retreat is being made under
conditions very unfavorable to the
announced yesterday, adding that all
the advantage remains with the Russians in the battle in that territory.

Semi-official advice received from Poland show that the German defeat
at Lodz, culminating in the capture
of a German army corps, was the result of a Russian maneuver by which
the Germans were led into an inex-
tricable trap.

the River Warta and the Russian
right wing on the Vistula, both lying
along the Warsaw-Kalis Railroad,
moved forward in unison in the last two days.

Simultaneously the Russian center
advanced and the Germans followed, apparently relying upon a German
column from Wielun to repulse the Russian left wing and to form a juncture with the main German forces.

The German plan failed as a result of the battle on November 25, when
the German force from Wielun was repulsed. Thereafter the Russian
wings advanced and closed the gap
passed.

In the meantime, Russian reserves
had come up and they surrounded
the Germans, thousands of whom surrendered. Others fought their way north in an effort to join the German
left in the vicinity of Lodz, (a town
forty-four miles southwest of War-
saw.)

Przemysl Forts Captured Rome, Nov. 27.—Official advice to the Russian embassy here state that some of the outer fortifications at Przemysl have been captured by the Russians.

Russians Route Turks At Erzerum

(By International News Service)
Tiflis, Transcaucasia, Nov. 27.—It is officially stated here that the Turks
east of Erzerum have been completely
routed by the Russians and fled to
taken 9000 prisoners and sixteen
guns.

Fighting has been renewed south
of Alashgerd, but Kurd hersemen and Turkish reinforcements have been driven back.

Report of Disaster to Kaiser's

Received a Crushing Blow Which Is Likely to Prove Decisive in the Campaign—Czar's Troops Also Win
Along Cracow Front and Invade
Hungary.

Petrograd, Nov. 27.—The great
Russian victory over the German
confirmed last night. On the entire
front of the Vistula and Warta rivers the Germans have begun a retreat. At some points, reports from the front say, the backward movement resembles a rout, artillery, ammunition and commissary stores being

on the enemy in the region of Lodz. Fighting there still continues,
but the Germans are hard pressed
on every side by the Russians, and
to the north.

Reports concerning the magnitude
in some instances place the German
losses as high as an entire corps,
by telegraphic dispatches from War-
saw.

Dealing with the fighting north of Lodz, the Army Messenger, the organ
of the general staff, says:

"The Germans are making attack
after attack in an attempt to break
the Russian forces, but without success. The Austro-German army is
paper adds that on the Galician front
enemy to a state of impotence. It also says that among the trophies
taken by the Russians at Czenstoch-owa was Emperor William's carriage,
which contained one of the emperor's
coats.

The invasion of Hungary is also being pushed, the Russian forces hav-
to the south of the Carpathian mountains. Fighting is reported in the Hungarian counties of Ung and Zemplin. The following official communication from the Russian general
staff was given out here last night:

Shots Were Fired To Warn

Minister of War at Constantinople
Makes Statement of the Incident,
and Secretary of State Bryan Gives
it to the Newspapers—Boat Was Approaching Mine Field.

Washington, Nov. 27.—The launch
from the American cruiser Tennessee
harbor of Smyrna was signalled that
it was approaching a mine field before shots were fired as a warning to
the little craft, according to the explanation of the Turkish minister of
war to American Ambassador Mor-genthau. This was announced by Secretary Bryan last night.

Mr. Bryan said he had received from Mr. Morgenthau a note addressed to the latter by the Turkish min-
conversation with reference to the Tennessee incident.

"The note," said Mr. Bryan, "contains the statement from government
the launch from approaching mines,
direction of the launch."

Mr. Bryan said he could not tell
from the message whether the Turkish minister of war made the formal
explanation in response to the rep-
point.

elk sent to this county several years ago was killed not far from the Crystal Springs hunting camp, presumably
before the deer season opened.

The Hetty Jane Dunaway recital,
held in the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Women's club, was a financial success as well as a high class entertainment.
The club cleared over $50 after the expenses of the evening had been paid. This money will be used for
of the club, the teachers in the borough schools and the Salvation Army.

transformed by a committee from the
blossoms and banks of crysanthem-
ums made an ideal setting for the part Miss Dunaway played.

"The Lady of the Decoration" was
something different from the usual
from one part of it to another with
be really living in that faraway land.

The accompanist, Miss Vann, was
exceptionally good and the people
greatly enjoyed her part of the program.

War Loan Overseas
London, Nov. 27.—In a speech in
the house of commons this afternoon
Premier Asquith declared that England had rallied from the financial
depression caused by the war. Conditions are now the very best as evidence of this he pointed to the loss
fifty million oversubscribed and declared applicants for the loan numbered more than one hundred thousand,
but could give no figures of the
amount over subscribed. The financial deadlock at the beginning was caused by lack credit, but all the world owed us money, the United States alone five billion dollars.

Washington Awaits News Of Villa's Movements

(By International News Service)
Washington, Nov. 27.—Government officials today waited to hear from Mexico City regarding Villa, who is
understood to be near the capital.
They believe this event will indicate
the republic, as it will result in the
prompt disclosure of the true relations between the chief of the north
and Zapata. No anxiety is felt here
over the situation, the officials having
confidence in the latest report from Consul Carothers that Villa had renewed his pledge to keep order. There will be no looting or interference with the degree team of Dulles.

Knights of Malta Instituted John H. Hoffman, of Philadelphia, grand recorder of the grand council of Pennsylvania, Knights of Malta, instituted the Golden Age Chapter, No.
472, of Clearfield, in December last evening. He was installed as will be no looting or interference with
the degree team of Dulles.

The admiralty announced yesterday that the British dreadnought Bulwark had been destroyed by an explosion in the Thames off Sheerness,
at the mouth of the estuary of the Hudway, thirty-five miles from London. Only twelve men out of the 800 aboard were saved.

vice admiral and a real admiral, who
caused by a magazine explosion.
There was no upheaval of the water.

When the smoke had cleared away
the ship had entirely disappeared.
caused by a torpedo from a German submarine.

The force of the explosion aboard
the boat was so great that houses in Sheerness and even in South End,
seven miles away and on the other side of the Medway, were violently
shaken. The people fled into the streets in alarm. When the great
ship blew up dense clouds of smoke
and flame shot into the air. The vessel disappeared beneath the waves in three minutes.

IMPORTANT DATES.

Thanksgiving day, Thursday, Nov. 26.
 Local talent minstrel show in the opera house, December 3 and 4.
 Annual donation to Clearfield hospital, week beginning Nov. 22.
 Home talent minstrel, opera house, Dec. 3 and 4.
 Tyrone band concert, in Clearfield opera house, for Belgian relief, December 11.
 Christmas, Friday, December 25.

FRIDAY, NOV. 27, 1914.

Good evening! Possibly there were several things you forgot to be thankful for yesterday; well today will do just as well.

Of course you are going to the minstrel show; everybody else is.

Lack of turkey for dinner yesterday did not increase the number of dyspeptics in town, at any rate.

Now that you have had one square meal don't you think you are able to start your Christmas buying early?

Ex-Boss Richard Croker has given up the idea that he is the greatest man on earth; he has just married.

Thanksgiving comes but once a year, and it's well it does not come oftener, with turkey at thirty-five cents a pound.

Buy a Red Cross seal and help in the war on that dread disease—tuberculosis—which slays its thousands yearly.

Sometimes it is not well to have too many counties go dry; the drought has closed two big collieries in Pottsville.

If Germany had had less "culture" and more humanity there would not be so many widows and orphans in the fatherland.

Beginning with the new year, the Chamber of Commerce should try to increase the number of mills and factories which make things in Clearfield.

Secretary Kalbfus puts scalp hunters in the same class as sportsmen, which is about as much as the secretary of the state game commission knows of true sports.

President Wilson need not do any more watchful waiting in re Mexico; the Mexicans are doing everything in their power to prove that they are unfit to rule themselves.

The Chicago Young Women's Christian association warns young girls to stay away from that city. It must be a very young girl who would need a warning of that kind.

Unless Villa hastens into Mexico City there will be very little loot remaining for his soldiers, as the greasers in the capital are doing some pillaging of their own account.

Colombia will probably be called to account for permitting Germans to use wireless telegraph stations in that country, and Colombia is just mean enough to want to make trouble for the United States.

Query that none of the big newspapers in this country have discovered the versatility of the young man who furnishes several papers with news from Kane and the adjoining territory for fifty miles round about.

The Kaiser's armies, both in Belgium and in Galicia, have been unloved within the past two days, but there are still thousands of young Germans who may be sacrificed to the military idea, and the war will go on.

In the meantime, the United States government and every state government in the union should declare war on the members of the Industrial Workers of the World, the worst band of scoundrels and anarchists known in modern times.

It is now stated that in the recent industrial campaign Penrose gave out several hundred dollars to the state association, through a man named Wunder, of Reading, who uses his position as secretary of the association to aid political friends. The state association should return that money to Penrose by the next mail.

END OF DEER HUNTING

The season for killing deer legally ended Wednesday night. Hundreds of these fleet-footed animals were slain by local and foreign hunters in the fifteen days during which it was permitted nimrods to hunt them. Quite a number of does were shot by careless hunters and a few deer that were wounded escaped into the brush to die where the hunters could not find them. At least one of the elk placed in the woods here a few years ago was killed, but whether by deer hunters or pheasant hunters is not known.

Sportsmen are in favor of changing the open season for deer until a later time in the year, when there is snow on the ground, so that wounded deer may be tracked and found and not be allowed to die where they cannot be found. When there is no snow on the ground a wounded deer has no trouble to hide itself in the brush and the hunter has no way of tracking it except by the blood drops, which are at best not easily discovered among the leaves and dead grass. If the season for killing deer were from the first of December to the fifteenth of the same month it would suit most hunters.

England's war minister may plead and England's poet laureate supplicate with the Briton to go to war, but the Briton is a cool, deliberate individual and must have his time in which to think the matter over. At this time there are a good many Englishmen who do not realize that German success in the war would mean the destruction of Great Britain, and the response to the appeals of the recruiting officers is anything but satisfactory to the heads of the war department.

Recently an appeal to an audience of twenty thousand Englishmen watching a football game resulted in the acquiescence of one solitary fan to don the king's uniform and become a recruit. Football may or may not be to blame for the indifference of this large crowd of Britons, but the incident proves that Englishmen, if they care anything about the results of the war, are willing to permit the French and Russians to do the fighting and undergo the hardships of the conflict. Possibly after the football season has ended the sporting Englishmen will turn their thoughts to the more serious matter of war and enlist in creditable numbers.

Clearfield will be in line with other and much larger towns this year by providing a municipal Christmas tree for the deserving poor children of the town. This is one of the projects of the Womens club, which has almost completed the plans for the innovation. The club is generously aided in this proposition by citizens, and the prospects are that such a Christmas tree as has never been seen in Clearfield will bring joy to many youngsters on Christmas morning.

Every citizen should desire to have part in this project. Those who feel disposed to help along the movement should send word to the Womens club. There are many little children in Clearfield whose enjoyment of Christmas has heretofore consisted in watching the smiling faces and gazing longingly upon other little people's presents, and the club this year decided that Clearfield should be the agent of Santa Claus in the distribution of gifts and that all poor children should participate in the distribution. The object is such a worthy one that all citizens should join in making it a complete success.

Blue ribbon winners in the $30,000 herd of prize cattle at the Pennsylvania State college were probably saved from infection by the foot and mouth disease by the failure to send them to the national dairy show, held in Chicago, last month. No cattle from Penn State were exhibited at that show, although it was planned to send the best specimens of live stock to the international show in Chicago next month. The postponement of that event will, it is believed, avoid the possibility of infection in the State college herd.

Every effort is being made to keep the local herd free from the disease, and the college barns are closed to all visitors who might carry the infection on their shoes or clothing. Dr. H. H. Havner, of the department of animal husbandry, said pigeons are one of the principal distributing

Many a quaint bit of history is embodied in the words used in war. For instance, the terms "lance sergeant" and "lance-corporal" arose from the fact that in the old days the holders of those ranks carried a lance instead of a halberd, round the head of which was twisted a slow match. Just before a battle took place they went round the ranks with these torchlike lances and gave fire to the matchlock men.

"Colonel" comes from the Italian "colonna," a column. The campaign "colonne," having been the first company of an infantry regiment, the little column which the "colonel" led. The little "lieutenant" comes from a word signifying "holding the place," e. g. a lieutenant colonel is a sort of understudy for a colonel; a lieutenant looks after a company in the absence of the captain, and so on.

Admiral comes from the Arabic "Emir al-Bihar," meaning lord of the sea, a commander of a fleet from the Indian and Arab seas, and in turn a king or chief is believed to have originated the term which is now used by a fleet admiral.

Good morning! How is your digestion?

Weather was ideal, turkey was prime, cranberry sauce excellent, pumpkin pie fine and the football game was well, just tolerable; the sermon, oh yes! Well it was not quite as long as we are used to, but we managed to get a short nap.

We saw Assemblyman-elect, J. E. Phillips, accompanied by some stranger visiting, the sick in Paradise yesterday, also at the hospital.

An apology. A certain person alleges that we made a hog have one eye in a former epistle. We didn't know we ever made any hog have any eyes, but as our education in hogology has been somewhat neglected (and consequently is deficient), rather than expose our ignorance in an abstract discussion of this great metaphysical question we apologize, ham and 4 or 5 feet of said hog, we will consider the incident closed.

Jas. Meador butchered on Wednesday and his neighbor, A. H. Gilles on Thanksgiving day.

Arch Ogden and his sister, Miss Della, motored to Clearfield yesterday and attended the union Thanksgiving service.

The Mt. Zion Sunday school will be held on next Sunday at 2 P. M. and if said complainant will send us a meeting conducted by the Brotherhood of Trinity church, Clearfield. All come to both services.

"THE MAN WHO VANISHED"
AT THE GLOBE TONIGHT

"The Man Who Vanished," special in 2 reels. A scheming uncle and aunt attempt to secure, by resorting to foul play, the estate which is inherited by their nephew, Hobart Schuyler. Thinking that they have succeeded in this, they take possession of the house only to learn later that their plan has failed and their victim is recovering. Hobart's sweetheart who nursed him back to health accidentally gets hold of the evidence which will convict the guilty ones. They imprison the girl in a fire proof vault and a rescue in the nick of time saves her life. Confronted by the evidence of their dastardly crime, the uncle and aunt are led away to punishment and disgrace at the Globe today.

"The Gypsy's Tallman" is a feature. To retaliate upon those who wrong us does not always satisfy, though its said, vengeance is sweet, but what must be the emotion of one who fancies that he has crushed his victim only to find that after all he has been thwarted. At the Globe today.

"Prosecution." Marcia's lover is the attorney against her brother. He offers to withdraw, but she urges him to do his duty. At the Globe today.

"The Revelry," who pays the fiddler. A happy mistake in identification.

Rev. and Mrs. Peters entertained the choir of the Eleventh street church at the parsonage at dinner yesterday.

The dance given by the Felix club at the Dimeling last evening was one of the most delightful social affairs of the season. There were 125 guests present, fifteen couples being from out of town. The music was furnished by the Wallace and Hoover orchestra.

Dinner was served at 6 o'clock P. M. and dancing continued all evening, a buffet lunch being served during intermission.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. McGulley held a holiday dinner at 6 o'clock at their home on Front street for the pleasure of their two sons, John and Arthur and friends, Jack Fuldner, Prof. Fahling, Lewis Gordon, Lorr Patchin, Clarence Berner, J. Albert Bushman. After the dinner, which they enjoyed immensely, they amused each other by discussing the football game and playing five hundred.

James K. Horton will give the fifth of the series of organ recitals in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath evening at 7:30 o'clock. Everyone is cordially invited to the musical treat. The recital is followed by the regular preaching service. Below is the list of the numbers which will be given: Fantasie, Ashford; The Sandman, Alden; Barcarolle, from "Les contes d'Hoffmann", Offenbach; Song of Sorrow, Gordon; Hymn of Nuns, Olfertory, "Hymn of Nuns", Lefebure-Wely.

CLEARFIELD CO. STUDENTS AT WEST CHESTER NORMAL. Among the 891 students enrolled at the West Chester state normal school are the following from Clearfield county:

Eva Dale, Agnes F. Garlock, Ethel Wright, Curwensville, and Jean W. Milson, Allport.

WANTED-A girl for general housework. Must be an experienced cook. Apply to Mrs. A. W. Leonardson, 606 South Second street. tf

The Y. M. C. A. Minstrels will hold the regular rehearsal in the Association rooms this evening at 7:30 sharp. A full attendance of all the company is desired.

This store has always been noted for its Toyland. But it is bigger, finer and better this year than it has ever been. My! what a treat awaits the youngsters as they come to see the fruits of this year's buying. Whatever toys are made, you'll find them represented in this stock. A great many of the dolls and toys that he distributes are made in Germany. Every year he sends us large quantities of these Toys and Dolls. Before the war broke out, August 1st, he had already started upon their way many of his Christmas purchases, and we have received via Rotterdam several shipments from him; the last one arriving here on Tuesday of this week.

In addition to this big assortment of foreign Toys he has arranged for supplies from our own manufacturers here in the United States, so that altogether we have here for our opening of Toyland on Saturday, the largest and best assortment of toys ever offered the children of this vicinity. To go into details concerning what is here this year to amuse and instruct the little folks would be an almost endless task. All along the line you'll see the development of practical ideas—sensible gifts that will keep the youngsters busy for months, and their time will not be wasted.

We expect to sell a good many Toys right away, for the world is full of folks nowadays who believe in early selection. It means better assortments to start with, it means a far wider variety; and it means you'll skip the rush and crush of the final Christmas days. Bring the little folks this Saturday, and the old folks too, for Toyland is of interest to both old and young.
